What About Me? A Sibling's Perspective

Wednesday, October 24th, 2018

6:30pm-8:00pm

District 95-Administration Center

832 Rand Rd.

Lake Zurich, IL

Join us for this informative session for parents to learn about the unique concerns and opportunities children who have a sibling with a disability may have, and ways to support them.

Share & Swap

Bring any gently used school supplies, books, toys or other items you've used to support your child's learning, communication or independence, but no longer need, and would like to pass on to others in the group.

Light refreshments and childcare will be provided.

Advance registration is requested through the link below:
